The Calgary Psychodynamic Psychotherapy Education Foundation and the Department of Psychiatry presents

Dr. Nicholas Ladany, Ph.D.

Enhancing Effectiveness and Limiting Ineffectiveness as a Supervisor

Thursday, November 5, 2015
9:00am—4:30pm
Registration begins at 8:00am

MacEwan Conference &
Event Centre
2500 University Drive NW
Calgary, AB T2N 1N4

The purpose of this presentation is to facilitate participants' understanding of the factors that contribute to supervisor effectiveness and ineffectiveness. Factors of effectiveness include variables such as the supervisory working alliance and implementing a model of supervision. Factors of ineffectiveness include variables such as micro aggressions (conscious and unconscious) and a tendency to infantilize trainees based on experience level. Multicultural competence of supervisors and supervises will be addressed. Supervision secrets will be explored and challenges in relation to trainee evaluation will be discussed and practiced.
